

FELICELLO

Philip J. Maldari
Associate Attorney

pmaldari@felicellolaw.com

Philip Maldari, Associate Attorney of Felicello Law, is an experienced litigator who regularly assists clients in handling complex business disputes in both state and federal courts. As an Associate Attorney at Felicello Law, he focuses on general business litigation and dispute resolution, bringing a strategic and results-driven approach to each matter.

Mr. Maldari has represented clients across a broad spectrum of legal issues, including commercial disputes, intellectual property (copyright and trademark), employment matters, and transactional concerns.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Maldari practiced at boutique law firms, where he developed specialized experience serving clients in the sports, entertainment, employment, and marketing industries.

Professional Activities

New York City Bar, Sports Law Committee

New York City Bar, Entertainment Law Committee

Representative Matters

- Represented a professional athlete in an arbitration hearing over a contract dispute.
- Represented a musical artist over a copyright infringement matter.

- Represented an advertising agency in a breach of contract dispute, obtaining a favorable settlement on its behalf.
- Represented individuals before the Division of Human Rights in matters involving disability, race, and age discrimination claims.

Note: This list includes engagements completed prior to joining Felicello Law.

Education

- Emory University, B.A., English & Creative Writing, 2017
- Tulane University School of Law, J.D., 2022
- New York University, MS, Sports Management, 2019

Admissions

- New York, 2023
- New Jersey, 2023
- U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York, 2024
- U.S. District Court, Eastern District of New York, 2024