

Law360: Board Vote Violated Court Order In DLA Piper Suit, Judge Says

In “Board Vote Violated Court Order In DLA Piper Suit, Judge Says,” Law 360 writes about a shareholder derivative action against firm client, Link Motion Inc., as well as Link Motion’s legal malpractice claim against DLA Piper.

Link Motion has accused the law firm of not properly representing it in a 2018 shareholder suit.

The case is Wayne Baliga v. Link Motion Inc. et al., case number 1:18-cv-11642, in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York.

The related case against DLA Piper is China AI Capital Ltd. v. DLA Piper LLP (US) et al., case number 1:21-cv-10911, in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Michael James Maloney represented Link Motion and China AI Capital in this matter.
