Success in Brief Podcast: Putting Clients First with Rosanne Felicello and Matrimonial Law Attorney Caroline Krauss

In this episode of Success In Brief with Rosanne Felicello, we welcome guest Caroline Krauss, Founding Partner at Krauss Shaknes Tallentire & Messeri LLP. She advises clients in all aspects of matrimonial law, including pre- and post-nuptial agreements, custody and access issues, divorce negotiation and litigation, equitable distribution, spousal and child support, and related ancillary issues.

Tune in to this episode as Caroline talks about:

- How she came to work with Stan Lotwin, a high-profile matrimonial attorney
- Transitioning from big law to a boutique firm
- The importance of building relationships with her clients
- How matrimonial law has changed over the years

Ms. Krauss is a candid advisor to and fierce advocate for her clients. An experienced litigator, Ms. Krauss also counsels her clients that litigation is not always the preferred approach. She is a trained mediator assisting parties in resolving their marital disputes.

Accolades Ms. Krauss has received include listings in Worth magazine's "Top 100 Attorneys" and New York Magazine's "Women Leaders of the Law." Additionally, she has been repeatedly recognized as a "Super Lawyer" by the publishers of the New York Metro Super Lawyers magazine. Ms. Krauss has also received the highest possible rating from Martindale-Hubbell and is a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation.

On a pro bono basis, Ms. Krauss-Browne serves as a mediator in the Neutral Evaluation Program operated by the Supreme Court, Civil Branch, New York County, New York. She is a member of the American Bar Association Family Law Section and the New York State Bar Association Family Law Section.
