Success in Brief Podcast: Mentoring, Litigation, and Creative Solutions with Rosanne Felicello and Alicia Tallbe, Yankwitt LLP

In this episode of Success In Brief with Rosanne Felicello, we welcome guest Alicia Tallbe, Partner and Deputy Chair of Litigation at Yankwitt LLP.

Tune in to this episode as Alicia talks about:

- How her father's stories inspired her to pursue a career in law
- Her journey in the legal field, and the clerkship she considers the best experience
- Her experiences as a litigator and passion for finding creative solutions for clients
- Supporting the next generation of lawyers, and her dedication to mentoring
- Challenges of being a working mother
- The value of creative problem solving in law

Alicia is an experienced litigator who represents clients in all areas of commercial and civil litigation, including complex contract disputes, corporate dissolution proceedings and business divorces, shareholder derivative actions, employment disputes, premises liability, insurance coverage matters, and others. Alicia also defends small and mid-sized businesses in lawsuits filed under the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Prior to joining Yankwitt LLP, Alicia honed her litigation skills at global law firm Shearman & Sterling and national law firm Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler, where she successfully represented a foreign manufacturing company in a bet-the-company litigation against its joint venture partner and defended multinational companies in Lanham Act and false advertising class action lawsuits. Alicia also spent two consecutive years clerking in the White Plains federal courthouse – first for Judge Kenneth M. Karas, and then for Judge Cathy Seibel.
